

University of Great Falls

Campus Minister

The University of Great Falls, a Catholic university, sponsored by the Sisters of Providence, in Great Falls, Montana, seeks a campus minister. The University is emphasizing formation and engagement among the students and community among the students, faculty and staff. We are looking for an energetic and out-going individual who appreciates the Catholic intellectual tradition and is interested in formation, helping students integrate faith and belief in all parts of their lives. There is great opportunity for creative and innovative approaches to engaging students. The ideal candidate has a vocation for serving in a Catholic community and university, is a self-starter, and possesses a Master's degree in a related field. The position is open immediately.

Please send resume and references to the University of Great Falls, Attn: Rebecca Sanne, 1301 20th Street South, Great Falls, MT 59405 or send an email to rsanne01@ugf.edu.
