

Love.Justice.Community

NATIONAL JESUIT STUDENT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE • 2008

AT-A-GLANCE SCHEDULE, WEDNESDAY TO SUNDAY

Wednesday, July 30

| | | |
|------------------|------------------------------|--------------------|
| 8:00am – 6:00pm | Conference Check In | Bellarmino Lobby |
| 10:30am – 6:00pm | Explore Seattle U (Optional) | Bellarmino Lobby |
| 6:00pm – 8:00pm | Opening Dinner | Campion Ballroom |
| 8:30pm – 11:00pm | Gear Swap/Movie Night | Student Center 160 |

Thursday, July 31

Feast of St. Ignatius

| | | |
|-------------------|--|------------------------|
| 7:30am – 8:30am | Breakfast | Cherry Street Market |
| 9:00am - 9:50am | Workshop Session Block A | Pigott Building |
| 10:00am - 10:50am | Featured Speaker: Chris Lowney | Pigott Auditorium |
| 11:00am - 11:50am | Reflection Time with Institutional Delegation | |
| 12:00pm - 1:15pm | Lunch | Cherry Street Market |
| 1:30pm - 2:20pm | Workshop Session Block B | Pigott Building |
| 2:30pm - 3:20pm | Workshop Session Block C | Pigott Building |
| 3:30pm - 4:20pm | Workshop Session Block D | Pigott Building |
| 4:45pm – 5:45pm | Mass | Chapel of St. Ignatius |
| 6:30pm – 9:00pm | Dinner on the Town | Seattle's Capital Hill |
| 9:30pm – 1:00am | Harbor Cruise | Argosy Pier |

SEATTLE
UNIVERSITY

Love.Justice.Community

NATIONAL JESUIT STUDENT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE • 2008

Friday, August 1

| | | |
|-------------------|--|----------------------|
| 7:30am - 8:30 am | Breakfast | Cherry Street Market |
| 9:00am-9:50am | Workshop Session Block E | Pigott Building |
| 10:00am-10:50am | Featured Speaker: Helene York | Pigott Auditorium |
| 11:00am-11:50 am | Reflection Time with Institutional Delegation | |
| 12:00pm- 1:15pm | Lunch | Cherry Street Market |
| 1:30pm-2:20pm | Workshop Session Block F | Pigott Building |
| 2:30pm-3:20pm | Workshop Session Block G | Pigott Building |
| 3:30pm-4:20pm | Workshop Session Block H | Pigott Building |
| 5:00pm-6:00pm | Pre-Game BBQ | Student Center Patio |
| 6:30pm-10:00pm | Mariners Game | Safeco Field |
| 10:30pm – 12:00am | Late Night Activities | Student Center |

Saturday, August 2

| | | |
|----------------|-------------------------|------------------------------|
| 7:30am-8:30am | Breakfast | Cherry Street Market |
| 8:30am -2:30pm | Service Project | Check In at Pigott Atrium |
| 3:00pm-7:00pm | Down Time | |
| 7:00pm-11:00pm | Closing Banquet & Dance | The Quad (Dance in STCN 160) |

SEATTLE
UNIVERSITY

Love.Justice.Community

NATIONAL JESUIT STUDENT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE • 2008

Sunday, August 3

| | | |
|----------------|----------------------|----------------------|
| 7:30am-8:30am | Breakfast | Cherry Street Market |
| 8:00am-3:00pm | Conference Check Out | Bellarmino Lobby |
| 8:00am- 3:00pm | Optional Activities | Bellarmino Lobby |

SEATTLE
UNIVERSITY

Love.Justice.Community

NATIONAL JESUIT STUDENT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE • 2008

WEDNESDAY, JULY 30

8:00am-6:00pm

Conference Check In

Bellarmino Lobby

Welcome to Seattle! Check in for the National Jesuit Student Leadership Conference will take place in the lobby of Bellarmine Residence Hall, where you'll be staying during the conference. Your shuttle from the airport will drop you off at the turnaround right in front of the building.

10:30am – 6:00pm

Explore Seattle U

Bellarmino Lobby

For those arriving earlier in the day, we have a number of fun activities planned for you on and around campus. For more information, please ask at the hospitality table.

6:00pm-8:00pm

Opening Dinner

Campion Ballroom

Our first official program of the conference is the Opening Dinner, sponsored by Seattle University's president Fr. Stephen V. Sundborg, SJ. Meet the other delegates from nearly all the Jesuit institutions and receive a warm welcome from the conference staff and university leadership.

8:30pm-11:00pm

Gear Swap/Movie Night

Student Center 160

Following dinner, unwind and join us for the movie "21," a true story about MIT students and their attempt to cash in on Las Vegas casinos. In addition to the popcorn and snacks, we'll also hold the "Gear Swap" from 8:30-9:30 pm to exchange t-shirts, promotional items and more from your institution.

SEATTLE
UNIVERSITY

Love.Justice.Community

NATIONAL JESUIT STUDENT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE • 2008

THURSDAY, JULY 31

7:30am-8:30am

Breakfast

Cherry Street Market

Enjoy breakfast at Cherry Street Market before starting the first day of the conference. Be sure to stop by our Information Table if you have any questions. You can also contribute suggestions to the Idea Swap. We'll use your suggestions for lunch time discussion groups!

9:00am-9:50am

Workshop Session Block A

Pigott Building

True Colors – What Color Do You Lead?

True Colors? No this presentation does not feature Cyndi Lauper. This interactive presentation will give participants a chance to see leadership styles in action, while leaving knowing what color they lead in.

Presenter: Matthew McKay, Canisius College

Location: Pigott 304

Building Coalitions through Student Leadership

Are you seeking opportunities for student leaders to network around common issues? Looking to promote unity among organizations on campus? Hope to form strategic alliances with other groups? This presentation will focus on a case study of student leadership and coalition building at Seattle University. Participants will learn more about our campus efforts to support the leadership development and club advocacy.

Presenter: Czarina Ramsay, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 203

Lights, Community, Action! How USF Clubs Give Back

Community Action is the community service program for USF's clubs and organizations. Learn how the ASUSF Senate and the Clubs and Organizations Advising Team bring USF students into the community of San Francisco.

Presenters: Alexandra Platt & Kelly Glynn

Location: Pigott 109

SEATTLE
UNIVERSITY

Love.Justice.Community

NATIONAL JESUIT STUDENT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE • 2008

Exploring Servant Leadership

Together we will explore the characteristics and applications of Servant-Leadership and seek to identify examples from our own personal experience.

Presenter: James Vive, Jennifer Pearson & David Henry, SJ, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 205

Breaking the Rules: Strategies for successful women in leadership

Since the women's movement and implementation of Title IX, women today both have greater access to higher education and in many areas outnumber men in the college environment. Despite these advances women in leadership roles still face many negative stereotypes. In this session we will actively discuss common challenges women face and identify skills that can help you as a student leader and for the rest of your life!

Presenters: Erin Engelhardt & Rachael Paul, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 204

Increasing Student Engagement with the Collegiate Readership Program

This session will introduce the Collegiate Readership Program and how it has helped transform students at Saint Luis University into engaged citizens and leaders on campus and in the community. Attendees should expect to gain an insight on how best to implement a customized Readership Program on their campus and depart with a new program idea in progress that fosters student interest and engagement.

Presenters: Samantha Morr St. Louis University & Katie Pesha USA Today

Location: Pigott 202

10:00am-10:50am Featured Speaker: Christopher Lowney Pigott Auditorium

Heroic Leadership:

Author Christopher Lowney will share his insights on the lessons to be learned from 16th century Jesuits. Framed around the history of the society's early founders, Lowney's book Heroic Leadership describes the key gifts leaders can employ to address today's challenges.

11:00am-11:50 am Reflection Time with Institutional Delegation

Each day of the educational sessions, delegations have time set aside to reflect on what they're learning and to strategize about the day. We want NJSLC to be an experience that impacts participants personally and gives them tools to take back to their campuses. Take the time to think about how you'll work together as campus leaders to accomplish goals.

SEATTLE
UNIVERSITY

Love.Justice.Community

NATIONAL JESUIT STUDENT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE • 2008

12:00pm- 1:15 pm

Lunch

Cherry Street Market

Enjoy lunch in our Cherry Street Market. Discussion groups will be designated based on topics generated by participants. Look for table tents announcing topics on tables.

1:30pm-2:20pm

Workshop Session Block B

Pigott Building

Setting a Course for Success: Setting and Achieving Group Goals

Need some fresh ideas for leading your organization through goal setting and planning? This session will review the basic principles to facilitating a group planning process and offer creative ideas to motivate members and provide structure through the implementation process. Bring your own creative ideas as we'll explore together!

Presenter: Michelle Etchart, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 203

Oh No You Didn't... Managing Group Conflict

Encountering conflict in a leadership position is an inevitable occurrence. This presentation will look at ways to help you navigate the conflict as it manifests. Participants will learn about the preferred ways people handle conflict and receive pointers on how to manage both your own conflicts and conflicts among the group members of your organization.

Presenter: Romando Nash, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 204

Making Room for Everyone at the Table: Ideas to promote inclusion using the social change model

This presentation will look at the various opportunities for students, faculty and staff to engage in conversation to create inclusive environments, programs and community. Participants will be able to use the concepts learned from the Social Change Model of Leadership and apply them to the work they do at their home institution.

Presenter: Christina Mireles, Darren Pierre & Alia Al-Sharif, Univ. of San Francisco

Location: Pigott 208

Student Conduct the Recreational Sports Way

The presentation will focus on how the Seattle University Recreational Sports department works with student conduct violations. Using discussion and a formal process it attempts to educate students more than punitively punish them.

Need description.

Presenter: Jill Vogel, Derek Hottell & Mark Williams, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 205

SEATTLE
UNIVERSITY

Love.Justice.Community

NATIONAL JESUIT STUDENT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE • 2008

Jesuit Vocations in Our Communities

Some of our campuses have great new programs that help students explore and discern their vocations. This workshop will ask student leaders what experiences they are seeking regarding their own vocational discernment and how that movement connects with the choices of some to become actual Jesuits while others become active collaborators in our mission. Participants will engage questions such as how do we create a culture of vocational discernment on our campuses and what is the role of student leaders in supporting vocations to the Jesuits?

Presenters: Glen Butterworth, SJ and Fr. Jack Bentz, SJ, Oregon Province

Location: Pigott 202

The Fostering Scholars Program: A Campus Support Program for Former Foster Youth

Seattle University's Fostering Scholars Program strives to improve the educational outcomes of foster youth. Established in 2006, the Fostering Scholars Program provides financial, educational, and personal support for former foster youth attending Seattle University. Workshop attendees will learn about the challenges facing foster youth when applying for and attending college and how the campus-based Fostering Scholars Program helps students overcome the obstacles on their path to a college degree.

Presenters: Colleen Montoya & Veratta Pegram-Floyd

Location: Pigott 108

So, They Say You Are a Leader: Fact or Fiction?

Presenter: Jodi Kelly, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 109

2:30pm-3:20pm Workshop Session Block C Pigott Building

Student Government: The Relationship Business

Student government officers communicate and work with large and diverse groups and for this reason it is imperative to define a clear and concise message. Once your message is defined, it can only be fulfilled by building the right relationships across campus and beyond.

Presenter: Natalie Sheils, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 202

SEATTLE
UNIVERSITY

Love.Justice.Community

NATIONAL JESUIT STUDENT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE • 2008

Knock, knock. Who's there?

When living in a community where communication methods range from text messaging to shouting down the hall, we sometimes lose the impact of our message. This program will talk about the benefits and challenges of communicating with residential students and give student leaders tips and suggestions on how best communicate within the residence halls.

Presenter: Alvin Mangosing, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 204

Intercultural Dialogue

Culture in common or culture in conflict? How does culture play out in personal/group interactions? This session will help to better understand different cultural communication styles for better interactions.

Presenter: Veratta Pegram-Floyd, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 205

Creating Safe Spaces for Profound Dialogue

Enter into the beauty of diversity on your campus – on retreats, through panel dialogue, and other discussion forums. Learn some basic methods to lay the groundwork for meaningful and respectful dialogue on a Catholic campus.

Presenter: Erin Beary, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 108

“Can You Hear Me Now?” - Effective Communication

Do you have a signal? Are they getting it? This interactive presentation helps participants learn the basics of communication, practice effective communication, and develop a communications list to take back to campus and use!

Presenter: Matthew McKay, Canisius College

Location: Pigott 109

So You Think You Can Dance? Going beyond basic icebreakers and adding new steps to your teambuilding repertoire

This workshop session is for anyone who wants to take their teambuilding knowledge beyond icebreakers. The presenter will show you some other options to name games for helping groups to grow as a team. It will be experiential in nature. No material necessary just an open mind and a willingness to learn. Basics on processing experiential activities will also be introduced along introductions to a variety of teambuilding activities.

Presenter: Rich Okamoto, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 203

SEATTLE
UNIVERSITY

Love.Justice.Community

NATIONAL JESUIT STUDENT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE • 2008

Advisor Wellness

As advisors and staff members in general, we stress to our student leaders the importance of finding balance and creating boundaries in their positions. But often times we don't practice what we preach. Learn and discuss with colleagues, the various ways that professionals find balance and boundaries in their own lives.

Facilitator: Jay Robertson-Howell, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 208

3:30pm-4:20pm

Workshop Session Block D

Pigott Building

So Moved! Second. What? Robert's Rules, Parliamentary Procedure and Tips for Effective Meetings

This workshop will cover the basics of Robert's Rules of Order (parliamentary procedure) while also exploring procedures and processes that can help your meetings to be more effective, efficient, and engaging. No more disorganized, unstructured, or boring meetings!

Presenter: Jeff Woods, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 109

Discerning Creativity and the Gifts You Want to Share

Is media meant to be purely cosmetic? Whose voice goes into the images, flyers, Facebook invitations, etc. that a group, club, or student organization releases? Who is/are the intended recipient/s of the gifts you want to share? With these questions as a foundation, explore valuable perspectives about creative marketing through the importance of identification, communication, and humility.

Presenter: Michael Alcantara, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 202

How does Recreational Sports Fit into the Jesuit Experience?

The presentation will focus on how the connection of mind, body and spirit is exercised, challenged and enlightened through recreational sports. A basic outline and understanding will be discussed of recreational sports in higher education, specifically how it is formulated and practiced at a Jesuit institution. Through group interactive, participants ultimately should gain a greater understanding of the positive benefits derived from recreation and how the Jesuit mission can be accomplished in Recreational Sports programs.

Presenter: Jill Vogel, Derek Hottell & Mark Williams, Seattle University

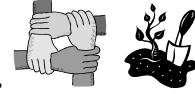

Location: Pigott 205

SEATTLE
UNIVERSITY

Love.Justice.Community

NATIONAL JESUIT STUDENT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE • 2008

Team Response-ability: How to Prevent and Manage Conflict.

Tired of Drama? This workshop is for you! In this interactive session, we will be discussing the challenges of managing conflict within student groups and amongst students working on a team. You will learn about your conflict-managing style, how to respond to conflicts that arise throughout the year, and how to communicate with others to prevent conflict. Leave the drama to TV shows like The Hills and discover how to manage conflict!

Presenters: JJ Jang & Krystle Cobian, NASPA Interns

Location: Pigott 203

Beating the “Fourth Meeting Slump”: Maintaining High Student Involvement Throughout the Year

If you're tired of having standing room only at your club's first meeting of the year, and then barely anybody at the last meeting, you're not alone. This program will address various ways in which a club can boost its membership and keep its members involved, not just at the beginning of the year but throughout the year, and finish up with a discussion in which you are invited to share your story as well as your own ideas as to how to solve this problem.

Presenter: Thomas Murphy, Loyola University Chicago

Location: Pigott 304

Thoughtful Leadership: The most difficult task to achieve.

What does it mean to be a thoughtful leader? How can we move along the path toward acquiring the characteristics needed of a thoughtful leader? Why should I care? Change must begin somewhere. Why not start with ourselves?

Presenter: Kim Frankwick, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 204

Function Area Roundtables

Gather with other staff members in similar function areas to exchange ideas, gain new insights and create a network across the country.

Meet in Pigott 108

4:45pm-5:45pm

Mass

Chapel of St. Ignatius

Join us in the beautiful Chapel of St. Ignatius for a mass in celebration of the Feast Day for St. Ignatius. The mass, presided over by Fr. Mike Bayard, S.J., Co-Director of Magis: Alumni Committed for Mission, is an opportunity to celebrate together, honor the legacy of the founder of the Society of Jesus and start the conference off with a grateful heart.

SEATTLE
UNIVERSITY

Love.Justice.Community

NATIONAL JESUIT STUDENT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE • 2008

6:00pm-9:00pm

Dinner on the Town

Seattle's Capital Hill

Take a stroll through the Capital Hill area of Seattle for dinner with your delegation and new found friends. We will provide maps and suggested restaurants with a range of prices and styles. Please be sure that each group includes at least one staff member (they get lonely). Meet back on campus by 9:00 pm to catch the bus for the cruise.

9:00pm-1:00am

Harbor Cruise

Argosy Pier

The Puget Sound is one of Seattle's unique features. Our chartered cruise will take us around the harbor, giving us a great view of both downtown Seattle and several islands. Don't forget to bring your camera and smiles. Buses will be leaving from Seattle University Marion St. Parking Lot at 9:00pm sharp!

SEATTLE
UNIVERSITY

Love.Justice.Community

NATIONAL JESUIT STUDENT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE • 2008

FRIDAY, AUGUST 1

7:30am-8:30am

Breakfast

Cherry Street Market

Enjoy breakfast at Cherry Street Market before starting your day. Be sure to stop by the Information Table to drop off your Idea Swap cards on your way to your first session.

9:00am-9:50am

Workshop Session Block E

Pigott Building

Advocacy Done Right

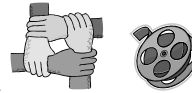

So much of what student leaders do is about advocating for their constituencies, but how many of us have training on the ins and outs of advocacy? Participants in this session will learn the basics of advocacy, communicating with constituents and making a thoughtful case. Learn how to get your voice heard!

Presenter: Michael Bisesi, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 203

Diversity Programming: It's More Than Just Food

Though we all love a free meal, there is more to programming around diversity than just food. Come to this session to learn how to take your diversity programming to the next level and how to connect with every student on your campus through innovative and effective programming.

Presenter: Renata Opoczynski, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 202

Service – Meeting the True Needs

Do our service activities lead to positive social change or to a perpetuation of existing social inequalities? The answer to this question might arise from the way we define “service.” Through this interactive workshop we will explore how our personal philosophies of service, impacts our work in the community.

Presenter: Kent Koth, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 204

How Does Your Garden Grow?

This session will discuss the value of community gardens and use Seattle University's Chardin Garden as an example. It will also look how to partner to create a successful community garden.

Presenter: Patrick Rossmann, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 304

SEATTLE
UNIVERSITY

Love.Justice.Community

NATIONAL JESUIT STUDENT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE • 2008

Keeping Leadership Sanity!

This workshop is for students who are leaders in every discipline, yet frequently forget to think about the potential in thinking about their own well being. A discussion to be facilitated by Loyola student leaders, this will focus on a dialogue where students will all be able to have input and help each other out!

Presenter: Sandra Manley, Alex Trout, Christopher Wellin & Thomas Murphy, Loyola University of Chicago

Location: Pigott 305

Creating a Winning Bid for NJSLC

Interested in hosting the National Jesuit Student Leadership Conference in the future? Hosts are being recruited for 2009 and 2010! Learn about the bid writing process and how to plan a conference that will be successful, fun and a great leadership opportunity for all involved.

Presenters: Hedia Bozorghadad & Michelle Etchart, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 308

10:00am-10:50am

Featured Speaker: Helene York

Pigott Auditorium

Considering the Ethical Dimensions of School Food

Responsible stewardship of the earth is an important way we can lead justly. Helene York will speak to ways our food choices impact the world we live in and our fellow humans. Learn about how you as student leaders can initiate change in your lives, campuses and communities.

11:00am-11:50am

Reflection Time with Institutional Delegation

Each day of the educational sessions, delegations have time set aside to reflect on what they're learning and to strategize about the day. We want NJSLC to be an experience that impacts participants personally and gives them tools to take back to their campuses. Take the time to think about how you'll work together as campus leaders to accomplish goals.

12:00pm- 1:15 pm

Lunch

Cherry Street Market

Enjoy lunch in our Cherry Street Market. Discussion groups will be designated based on topics generated by participants. Look for the tables tents on each table for the specified topic.

SEATTLE
UNIVERSITY

Love.Justice.Community

NATIONAL JESUIT STUDENT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE • 2008

1:30m-2:20pm

Workshop Session Block F

Pigott Building

How Do We Spend Our Money? A Look Into the Funding of Student Activities at Jesuit Schools

Curious as to how your Student Activity Fee matches up to other Jesuit Schools? Looking to change financial policies, funding procedures, or increase your activity fee? Come gain some valuable information on how Jesuit school student governments fund student activities and learn how you can effectively review and change how you use students' money.

Presenter: James Schott, Marquette University

Location: Pigott 304

Sharing Our Stories: Incorporating Reflective Practices into Your leadership

Students all bring unique and powerful life stories to the college experiences. This session will explore how leaders can become more in tune with how to be reflective and use reflection with their own life stories so they can inspire the students they work with to be reflective as well. This practice has been shown to promote stronger friendships and stronger communities both inside and outside of the Residence Halls.

Presenter: Ben Kadamus, College of Holy Cross

Location: Pigott 305

Leading Amidst Religious Differences: Developing Competencies for Dialogue

This session will give an overview of different religions with stories of how some students feel marginalized on campus because of their spiritualities and religious beliefs. We'll explore how to increase awareness, knowledge and skills to dialogue across differences and contribute to a supportive campus climate for religious diversity.

Presenter: Diane Schmitz, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 204

Leadership: A Pathology of the Human Condition

An examination of the existential human condition creates a ubiquitous need for hierarchical relationships. In its unaddressed state, this leads to toxic leader/follower relationships.

Presenters: Richard MacLean & Dr. Robert Pena, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 308

SEATTLE
UNIVERSITY

Love.Justice.Community

NATIONAL JESUIT STUDENT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE • 2008

Perceptions of Gay and Lesbian Student in Jesuit Universities

This study investigated how Jesuit education affects perceptions of leadership in self identified gay and lesbian student leaders at Jesuit institutions of higher education. The purpose of the study was to examine how the college experience at Jesuit universities contributes to leadership self-efficacy in gay and lesbian student leaders. Learn more about the study, results and how gay and lesbian students experience their Jesuit education.

Presenter: Dr. Eddie Salazar, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 202

Makin' It Work...Livin' the Mission

What difference does your Jesuit education make as leaders on your campus? How do you make the Jesuit mission work in your life as a student leader? Join in conversation with a variety of alumni of Jesuit schools who will address how makin' the Jesuit mission work in their professional work and how livin' the Jesuit mission makes a difference in their lives and lives of those whom they serve.

Presenters: Fr. Mike Bayard, SJ & Erin Swezey, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 203

2:30pm-3:20pm

Workshop Session Block G

Pigott Building

Creating Change - Building Community & Diverse Programming

In order to provide students with a diverse range of experiences in the residence hall, the Office of Residence Life has adopted a programming model and a programming vision statement that is multifaceted and is based strongly on Jesuit Values.

Presenters: Ophelie Rowe-Allen & Mike Cicirelli, Fairfield University

Location: Pigott 304

Constant Communication: Supporting Your Organization and the Student Body

This workshop will explore the importance of communication for an effective and productive organization and the impact it has on a university as a whole. We will explore different types of communication, how to communicate more effectively with different working styles, as well as professional communication etiquette.

Presenter: Whitney Brooks, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 203

SEATTLE
UNIVERSITY

Love. Justice. Community

NATIONAL JESUIT STUDENT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE • 2008

From iServe to weReflect: Group reflection skills for leaders in service

Buddha once said, "Don't just act. Sit there." Easier said than done! Have you ever had a service group disperse immediately upon returning to campus? Have you been baffled about how to draw meaning from a disaster of a service experience? Have you struggled with whether or not to use "God language"? This workshop will explore the why's and how's of facilitating meaningful, safe, and effective group reflection before, during, and after service experiences.

Presenter: Katie Pinard, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 204

Reducing Your Campus Carbon Footprint

The Regis University Student Government Association has spearheaded three campus-wide sustainability initiatives over the last two years. This has resulted in bringing single-stream recycling to campus, the addition of a student bus pass program, and the development of a bike share program. We'll share our experience in working collaboratively with Faculty, Staff and Administrators to promote environmental change on our campus, discuss what you do on yours, and brainstorm the next step in this vital campus topic.

Presenters: David Law, Zach Owens, Regis University

Location: Pigott 202

Xavier Global House Outreach Project

The Xavier Global House Outreach Program provides student leaders with an international service-learning experience, allowing students to exercise and further develop their leadership skills vis-à-vis classroom activities for academic credit, on-site construction projects, and educational site visits. Under the supervision of faculty and professional staff members, students are afforded the opportunity to assume a wide range of leadership, supervisory, and administrative roles, all while studying, then experiencing first-hand, the social, environmental, political, economic, and health related issues that govern U.S./Mexico border relations along the San Diego – Tijuana border.

Presenter: John McKiernan, Dr. Paul Milan & G DeCastro, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 305

Infusing Social Justice Principles in the Research Process

Participants will explore how to practice research guided by social justice principles of equity and empowerment. The impact of this focus on the outcomes of the research process will also be discussed.

Presenter: Dr. Ruth White, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 308

SEATTLE
UNIVERSITY

Love.Justice.Community

NATIONAL JESUIT STUDENT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE • 2008

3:30pm-4:20pm

Workshop Session Block H

Pigott Building

Leading for Mission

Saint Joseph's University will define and explain our new Vice President for Mission executive board position. We will discuss why we thought this role was necessary, what we seek to achieve on our campus, and how this position may benefit your campus. We will also describe the structure of the present position, what has transpired since its inception, as well as our hopes for the future.

Presenter: Hollyanne Pronko, Saint Joseph's University

Location: Pigott 202

Creating Sustainable Change

Developing sustainable change is a constant challenge for leaders. Using case studies based on real events, the presenter will help participants develop an understanding of how to go about creating an organizational change for the better.

Presenter: Tim Wilson, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 203

Interior Decorating: Advertising in the Residence Halls

Participants will look at how students can reach out to their peers through advertising in unique ways. We will be focusing on advertising to residents and brainstorm ways to add a twist to your publicity in the on-campus housing community.

Presenter: Rachel Wang, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 305

New Student Orientation

This session provides an overview of the Gonzaga University Fall Orientation program and its organization, events, and mission. Explore how to establish your own "traditions" for such an event and create new ones.

Presenters: Andrea Woods, Derek Dague & David Lindsay, Gonzaga University

Location: Pigott 308

Programming in Residential Communities

Come to this interactive presentation where you will learn new and creative ways to engage residents in the halls through programming. You will learn ways to collaborate with faculty, hall councils, and other student organizations to create programs residents will love. And most importantly, you will learn how to assess your residents' needs and interests and find ways to get them involved in the program planning.

Presenter: Nicole Hoyes-Wilson, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 304

SEATTLE
UNIVERSITY

Love.Justice.Community

NATIONAL JESUIT STUDENT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE • 2008

Ignatian Spirituality 101: Student Leaders as Contemplatives in Action

Curious to know what Ignatian Spirituality is all about? Want to discover how this nearly 500 year-old spirituality, or way of being in the world, can enliven and inspire your service as leaders for others... as well as how it informs your role as a student leader at a Jesuit university? Join us for a session on Ignatian Spirituality, the inspiration of Jesuit leadership, and how it has formed people to live as reflective, observant individuals committed to the Jesuit mission of a 'faith that does justice'. Also, learn more about its expression through the arts, Spiritual Exercises (meditation/prayer), and the formal documents of the Society of Jesus.

Presenter: Maria Ochoa, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 204

How to take diversity to the next level

As advisors we train our students to be sensitive to issues of diversity when working with students, staff and faculty on campus. Join other professional staff members in a discussion on how to effectively and intentionally engage in diversity from an administrative level.

Facilitator: Monica Nixon, Seattle University

Location: Pigott 201

5:00-6:00pm

Pre-Game BBQ

Student Center Patio

Join us on the patio for a BBQ hosted by Bon Appetit before we head out for an evening of fun at the Mariners Game.

6:30-10:00 pm

Mariners Game

Safeco Field

Join us in cheering on the Seattle Mariners as we duke it out with the Baltimore Orioles. Meet at the Marion St. Parking lot to board buses to the game by 6:30 pm.

10:30 pm – 12:00 am

Late Night Activities

Student Center

Still feeling that competitive streak? Board games, the Student Center Game Room and snacks will be available after the game.

SEATTLE
UNIVERSITY

Love.Justice.Community

NATIONAL JESUIT STUDENT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE • 2008

SATURDAY, AUGUST 2

7:30am-8:30am

Breakfast

Cherry Street Market

Enjoy breakfast at Cherry Street Market before our service day.

8:30am -2:30pm

Service Project

Pigott Atrium (Launch Site)

Join us for a day of direct service with a few of Seattle University's community partners in environmental restoration projects in the Lincoln Park area of West Seattle. This day of community building is sponsored by Seattle University's Center for Service and Community Engagement and USA Today. Please arrive for check in by 8:30 am so that we can leave on time.

3:00pm-7:00pm

Down Time

After a day of service, you may want to use this time to rest and recuperate before the banquet. If you are still feeling energized, you can also use this time to explore all that Seattle has to offer! Please remember to take a staff member with you when leaving campus.

7:00pm-11:00pm

Closing Banquet

Quad/Student Center 160

Our Closing Banquet is a great time to celebrate. Our featured speaker for the evening is Washington State Attorney General Rob McKenna. McKenna is known both for his strong ethical leadership in the community, and a faith based vision for change.

After the banquet, join your colleagues in celebrating to music and good company in the Student Center. Our conference slideshow is worth the trip.

SEATTLE
UNIVERSITY

Love.Justice.Community

NATIONAL JESUIT STUDENT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE • 2008

SUNDAY, AUGUST 3

7:30am-8:30am

Breakfast

Cherry Street Market

Cherry Street Market will be serving breakfast to make sure you start your day of travel of right. It's the most important meal of the day!

8:00am-3:00pm

Conference Check Out

Bellarmino Lobby

Be sure to turn in your key cards at the Bellarmine Front Desk and let us know that you're on your way before you leave. Shuttle service will again be provided to the airport. Check the schedule at the check out area for your assigned shuttle time. If you are checking out early please turn your keys in to your shuttle driver.

8:00am- 3:00pm

Optional Activities

Bellarmino Lobby

For those who have some time on their hands while waiting for flights, we'll have games and other activities for you in the Bellarmine Lobby.

SEATTLE
UNIVERSITY